TO THE HONORABLE JAN BREWER

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

Dear Governor Brewer:

I am pleased to submit to you and the citizens of Arizona the summary report of the Arts Commission for the 2013 fiscal year. This report fulfills the requirements of the act that established the Arizona Commission on the Arts (A.R.S. § 41-981).

Fiscal year 2013 saw a continuation of financial struggles and lingering hardships to the nonprofit arts industry in our state, but also early signs of hope on the horizon. The Arts Commission continues to provide critical resources, programs and services to the Arizona arts industry. In response to economic realities and national funding trends in the nonprofit arts and culture sector, the Arts Commission dramatically reimagined its investment in arts organizations and schools to better align with the agency's grantmaking objectives, strategic plan and enabling statutes. In particular, the redesign sought to accomplish the following three objectives:

1. To refocus agency grantmaking such that the primary constituents meant to benefit from the State's investment in the arts and culture sector are the citizens of Arizona, the taxpaying public.
2. To incentivize best practices and innovative strategies which prioritize fiscal ingenuity and encourage broad community participation and engagement.
3. To ensure that the state's investment in the arts and culture sector reflects Arizona's diverse population and evolving demographics.

Under the redesigned funding programs, some institutions have had to make do with less than they had come to feel entitled. Some, who were unable to sufficiently demonstrate their value, viability or responsiveness lost all funding. The majority, however, have flourished under these new guidelines. These are the organizations and schools that best demonstrate the vital and significant role that the arts play in Arizona's cities, towns and communities. They are incubators of industry and innovation; they bind and strengthen communities; they attract tourism and new investment; they are catalyst for positive and lasting change.

To evidence this impact, the Arizona Commission on the Arts partnered with the Arizona Cultural Data Project in Fiscal Year 2013 to produce the publication, Impact: Arts & Culture. With bold, clear graphics, the brochure vividly illustrates the myriad ways Arizona's arts and culture sector develops jobs and revenue, contributes to economic health and competitiveness, promotes civic health and pride, and enhances Arizonans' overall quality of life.

It is our pleasure to serve the state of Arizona and to support the efforts of the Arts Commission to ensure that all Arizonans can participate in and experience the arts wherever they live.

Yours Respectfully,

Mark Feldman
Arts Commission Chair

AGENCY OVERVIEW

OUR MISSION

We imagine an Arizona where everyone can participate in and experience the arts.

AGENCY OVERVIEW

One of 56 state and jurisdictional arts agencies, the Arizona Commission on the Arts supports a statewide arts network. The agency is governed by a 15-member Governor-appointed Commission and a professional staff grounded in the arts, including practicing artists, skilled administrators and education specialists who serve in local and national arts leadership roles.

The Arts Commission's leadership reaches into all areas of the state, supporting programs that contribute to student learning, connect people in rural communities and urban centers, preserve the rich traditions of Arizona's diverse communities, encourage participation by people with disabilities and by citizens of all ages, and strengthen artistic and administrative skills of arts organizations to help position them to better serve the people of Arizona.

Through the Arizona Commission on the Arts, the state makes a strategic investment of public dollars to ensure Arizona's competitive edge in attracting knowledge workers and their businesses. The diversity of Arizona's artistic offerings becomes a magnet for attracting tourists. This public investment encourages contributions from the private sector and leverages these dollars many times over, contributing enormously to the quality of life and education opportunities the people of Arizona expect.

A LONG-TERM VISION FOR A SUSTAINABLE ARTS INDUSTRY

Arizonans have indicated that a successful statewide arts and culture industry features the following attributes:

1. Arizonans have access to vibrant, quality arts and cultural activities regardless of where they live and have opportunities to participate in the arts as practitioners, professionals, patrons, donors and volunteers.
2. Residents have opportunities to make healthy, livable wages working in myriad facets of the arts in Arizona communities. Their contributions are valued and respected.
3. Students have access to quality, robust arts education opportunities in Arizona schools. In-school arts opportunities are enhanced by meaningful opportunities in out-of-school and community settings.
4. Arts and cultural programs and organizations are considered societal cornerstones and employed as partners in the revitalization and sustainability of streets, neighborhoods and communities.
5. In recognition of the arts industry's role in economic viability, profitability and enhanced quality of life, Arizona's for-profit businesses invest in the arts as partners, supporters and champions.

The Arts Commission considers these five points to be a long-term vision for a sustainable arts industry.

STRATEGIC PLAN

The Arizona Commission on the Arts acts in accordance with the strategic plan described in the 2012 publication, Building an Artistic Future for Arizona. The plan spans six years (FY2012– FY2016) and was ratified by the Arts Commission’s Governor-appointed board on September 16, 2011 for implementation October 01, 2011.

The plan represents a cohesive set of strategies to advance a collective cause: stability and progress for the Arizona arts industry. Within the plan, “Desired Outcomes” are developed as ideal results for the entire Arizona arts industry, and “Arts Commission Goals” are developed as planned objectives for the Arts Commission itself. The Arts Commission’s Strategic Plan can be found here.

HISTORY OF THE ARTS COMMISSION

When Congress created the National Endowment for the Arts in 1965, they also gave funding to all state governments to form state arts commissions and asked them to conduct surveys of each state’s existing facilities, organizations and individuals engaged in the arts. Governor Samuel P. Goddard established the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a state council by executive order on January 24, 1966. The 28th Arizona Legislature passed S.B. 139, establishing the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a permanent state agency, and Governor Jack Williams signed the bill on March 13, 1967.

The Arts Commission became the official agency of the State of Arizona “to stimulate and encourage public interest in the cultural resources, through the study and presentation of the performing arts and fine arts, to ensure that their role in the life of our communities will continue to grow and will play an even more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens.” In 1982, Governor Bruce Babbitt signed enabling legislation continuing the agency to 1992, and changing its name to the Arizona Commission on the Arts. Again in 1992, the Legislature and Governor Fife Symington reinstated the agency until 2002. In 2001, the Auditor General’s office conducted a nine-month-long Sunset Audit. The following year, the Legislature reauthorized the agency until 2012. On Tuesday, April 17, 2012, Governor Jan Brewer signed HB2265 into law, reauthorizing the Arizona Commission on the Arts for another 10 years.

GOVERNING COMMISSION

The Commission consists of a governing board of fifteen members, including one chairperson and one vice chairperson, appointed by the Governor of Arizona. Commission members serve terms of three years and are chosen for their demonstrated ability, good judgment and experience in arts-related fields. In addition, they are selected to ensure the geographic and ethnic representation of all areas of the state. Commission members attend quarterly Commission meetings, serve as chairs for selection panels, award grants and formulate policy consistent with the enabling legislation.

All grants and awards from the Arts Commission are made in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, American Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

PROGRAM AREAS

WHAT DOES THE ARTS COMMISSION DO?

The Arizona Commission on the Arts is an agency of the State of Arizona whose mission is to create opportunities for all Arizonans to participate in and experience the arts. To that end, The Arizona Commission on the Arts provides programs, services and funding support to contribute to the growth and stabilization of the arts, impact student learning, nurture and develop artists' craft and skills, preserve the rich traditions of Arizona communities, and encourage participation by citizens of all ages and abilities.

The Arizona Commission on the arts continues to be an exemplary agency of the State of Arizona, providing much-needed services to a statewide arts industry in a manner that is efficient, transparent and accountable to the citizens of Arizona.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

Staffed with experts in organizational structure and development, community building through the arts, arts educations, arts funding models, and various arts disciplines, the Arts Commission acts as a knowledge base for the state's artists, arts organizations, and educators. As a central hub for Arizona's arts and culture community, the Arts Commission is well-positioned to relay information, make referrals and otherwise facilitate communication and the establishment of new partnerships.

The Arts Commission maintains an extensive and frequently updated website where constituents can access a wealth of pertinent and valuable information from anywhere in the state at any time. Among the most popular features on azarts.gov are the constantly updated arts opportunities page, where artists, educators and administrators can find local and national opportunities in all arts disciplines, and the Arts417 blog, where original articles on matters of interest to Arizona's arts community are posted two to three times a week.

RESEARCH

The Arts Commission maintains a wide array of research data and analysis on the arts, arts education, and arts funding trends. The Arts Commission provides these resources to constituents through azarts.gov and print publications as well as to other service organizations and public agencies. The Arts Commission also tracks research and statistics on a broad range of areas from cultural tourism to economic impact studies of the arts to the influence of arts education on student learning.

In Fiscal Year 2013, the Arizona Commission on the Arts partnered with the Arizona Cultural Data Project to produce the publication, Impact: Arts & Culture. Utilizing aggregated data from the Arizona Cultural Data Project and select additional data sources, Impact: Arts and Culture in Arizona illustrates the myriad ways Arizona's arts and culture sector develops jobs and revenue, contributes to economic health and competitiveness, promotes civic health and pride and enhances Arizonans' overall quality of life.

PROFESSIONAL/STAFF ASSISTANCE

Though small in number and tasked with serving the entire state of Arizona, the Arts Commission's program staff remains committed to providing highly personalized, direct service to its constituents. With the redesign of annual grants programs during Fiscal Year 2013, staff members hosted workshops, delivering direct instruction on the changes to constituents in cities and towns throughout the state.

On an individual level, Arts Commission program staff is highly accessible via phone and email, providing prompt and courteous response to all constituent correspondence.

CONVENING

The Arts Commission is a catalyst and facilitator in bringing together the Arizona arts industry.

Arts Commission staff members travel throughout the state on an annual basis offering workshops and technical assistance to artists, arts educators, arts administrators, volunteers and more. To better serve the constituent needs, the Workshops-on-Demand program was established in 2013. Using a simple online form, constituent organizations are able to request and schedule staff member-presented workshops on a variety of relevant and timely topics. Online chat sessions hosted throughout 2013 were another way that Arts Commission staff members were able to reach constituents statewide in a manner that was both efficient and economical.

Arts Commission staff members also serve on panels, provide technical assistance, and present at convenings around the state such as the Governor's Conference on Tourism, Arizona Department of Education, the Arizona-Mexico Commission and more. The Arts Commission also partnered with Phoenix Office of Arts & Culture in 2013 to present programming on creative placemaking and public art.

The agency represents the arts in policy discussions including economic development, cultural tourism, education, community development, public art and transportation design.

FUNDING

ORGANIZATIONS

Awarding grants to arts organizations and schools is at the center of the Arizona Commission on the Arts' service. In this effort grant applicants are our partners, providing direct arts experiences throughout Arizona. The Arts Commission provides a variety of funding opportunities that enable schools, organizations and community groups to carry out projects and to maintain ongoing, high quality public arts programming; encourage individual artists to develop their skills both as artists and as independent businesspeople. Special initiatives and pilot programs are also implemented to address specific community needs or objectives.

The Arts Commission offers General Operating Support Grants to nonprofit arts organizations to provide stability and infrastructure. This support allows organizations of all sizes to develop and present high-quality and effective programs for the public. This support is also available for local arts agencies and tribal museums.

Arts Learning Project Grants connect practicing artists in all disciplines with schools, after-school programs, libraries, museums and other community settings. These programs reinforce the value of the arts as an essential part of basic education, support the implementation of the Arizona Arts Standards and provide students and teachers opportunities to explore the arts and participate in hands-on creative experiences with artists.

Festival Project Grants assist organizations in providing quality arts programming to communities.

Artist Research and Development Grants encourage artists to pursue research and development and to extend the mastery of their art forms. The Arts Commission sees individual artists as small business entrepreneurs in communities large and small. Modest support in both financial and technical areas help these small businesses grow and provide resources to their communities and grow our economy.

The Arts Commission hosts the Arizona Teaching Artist Roster, which uses the latest in Web 2.0 technology. This roster compiles a listing of juried artists in many disciplines who are available to work in schools and communities.

Artists can also apply for Professional Development Grants to attend conferences and learning opportunities in order to further their professional artistic and management development.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Arizona Commission on the Arts provides assistance through its accessibility programs to artists with disabilities and statewide arts organizations. Grantees are required to complete and submit an Accessibility Checklist, which provides information about organizations' programming, communications, and the facility(ies) in which organizations present Arts Commission-sponsored programs. Accessibility of organizations' programs is required whether organizations own a facility, rent a facility space or tour programs. As a component of the Final Report, grantees must submit an Accessibility Statement. Within this statement, grantees answer a question about the step(s) their organization has taken towards implementation of one ADA/Accessibility priority.

Additional information about the Arts Commission's policies and services related to accessibility can be found here.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

AWARDED BY THE ARTS COMMISSION (ALPHABETICAL BY COUNTY AND CITY)

This section details each individual grant made to organizations and individuals in FY12-13. Organized alphabetically by county, and then by municipality within the county, this lists each grantee and the title of the project or grant type, and the sources of funds for the grant.

HOW WERE THESE GRANTS SELECTED?

All grants are awarded through a process in which the organization or individual applies for support. Eligible applications are evaluated through a panel review process. These panels comprise artists, arts administrators, educators and expert laypeople from the diverse geographic, artistic and cultural/ethnic communities of Arizona. Arts Commission staff does not participate as review panelists. Panels review applications in a given category, giving of their time and expertise, and provide recommendations for funding to the Arts Commission. Governor-appointed Commissioners chair the panel meetings and ratify the recommendations of the panelists. Grant recipients document and certify the use of the funds before payment is made, and must provide appropriate documentation in a final report on the project after completion.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY COME FROM?

Federal funds are provided through Congressional appropriations to the National Endowment for the Arts; Arizona receives funds through a Partnership Agreement (a portion is calculated by formula and a portion through a competitive review process).

State funds are received via the Arts Trust Fund. ATF denotes the Arts Trust Fund; these grants are specifically designated from a portion of the annual filing of businesses with the Corporation Commission, interest income from the state portion of Arizona ArtShare, the state's arts endowment housed in the State Treasury and private funds at the Arizona Community Foundation. Other funds come from interest generated by Arizona ArtShare, a private endowment fund; the Bill Desmond Writers' Fund; and a partnership with the Arizona Community Foundation.

FINANCIAL REPORTS 2013

Vases by Jeremy Briddell, Tempe

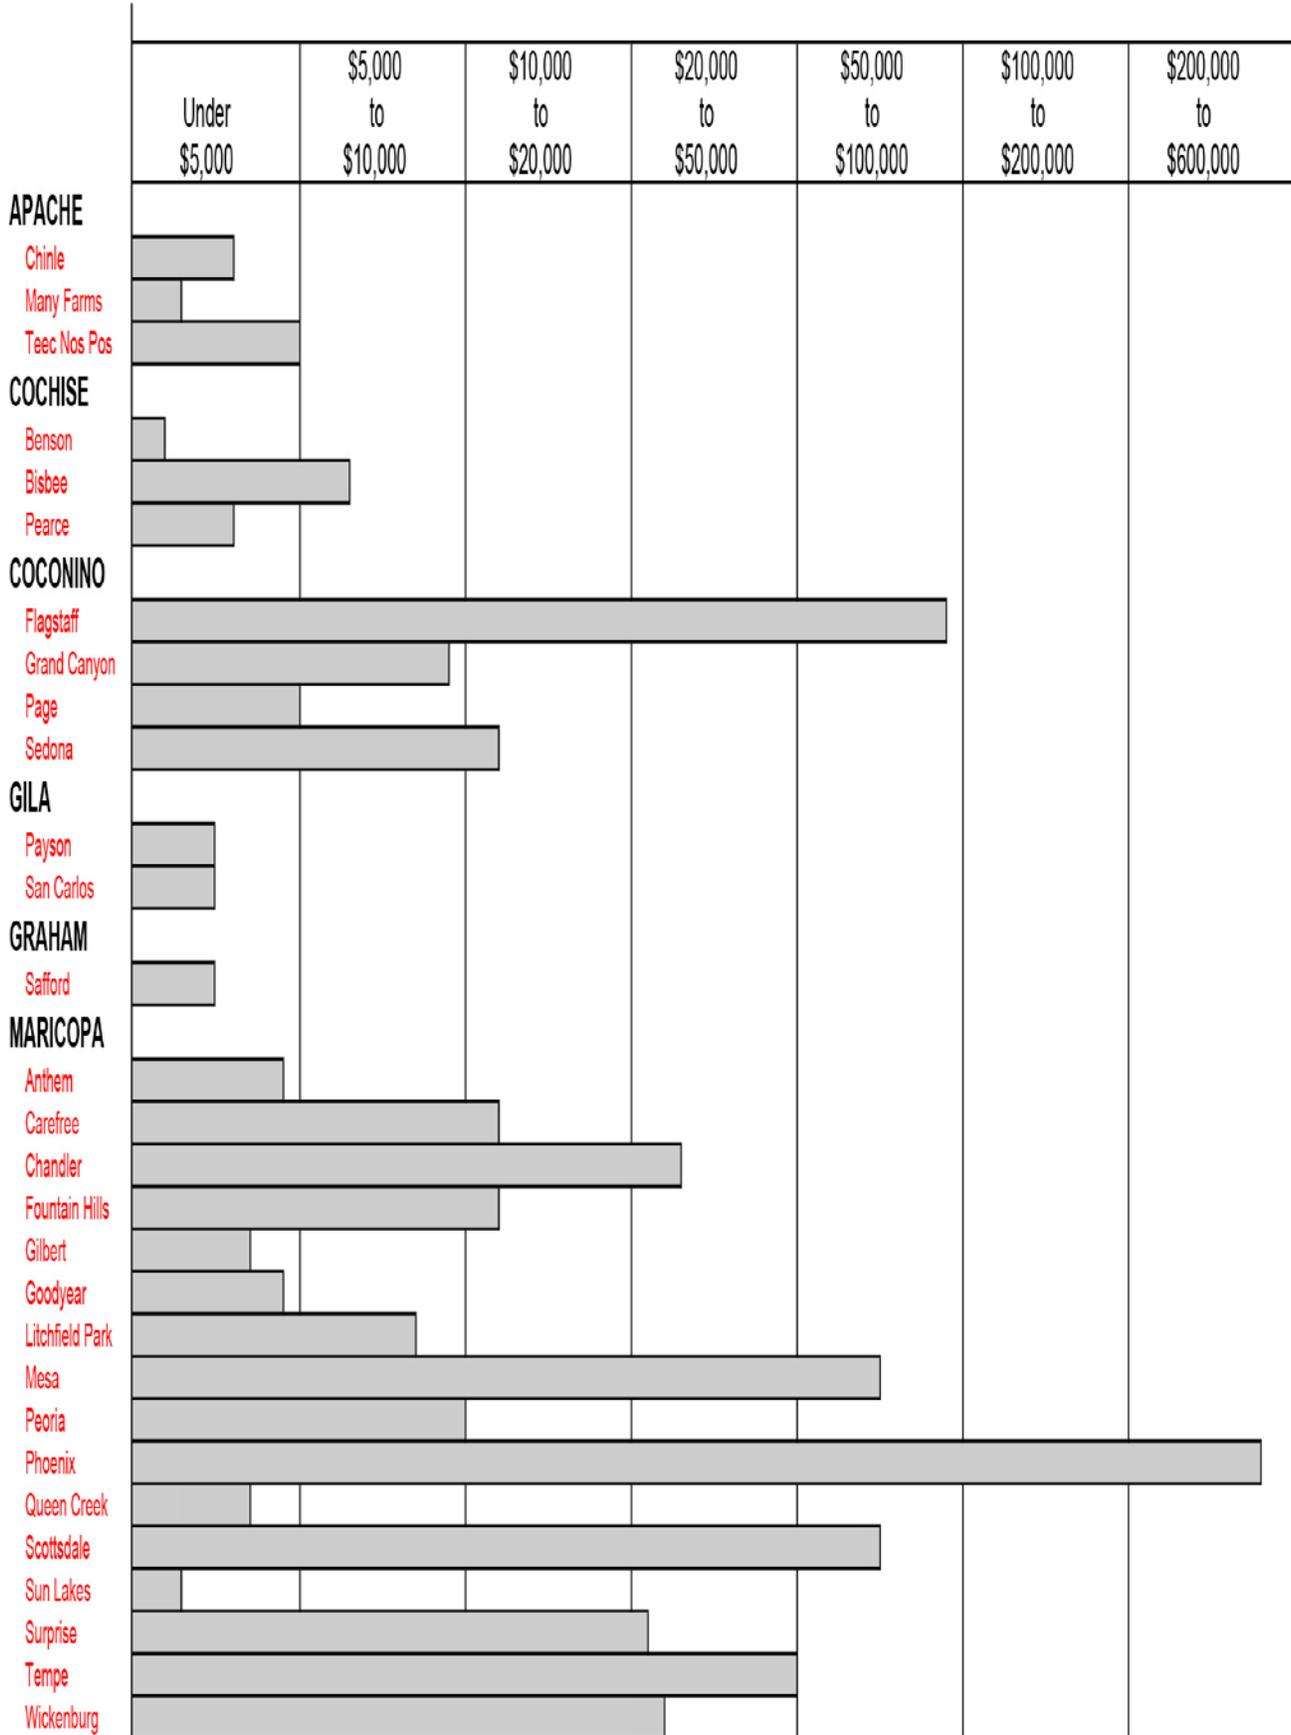

Funds are received from three sources:

- Arts Fund, a combination of federal funds and other local funds.
- Arts Trust Fund, a portion of the annual filing fee for for-profit corporations, collected by the Arizona Corporation Commission for grants toward general operating support of non-profit arts organizations.
- Arts Endowment, interest earned on state contributions to the state arts endowment fund, and on private contributions to Arizona ArtShare funds at the Arizona Community Foundation and Community Foundation for Southern Arizona. (Note: The remaining balance of the public fund was swept in FY2012.)

Innovative people and companies look for creative communities with diverse cultural amenities. The communities that capitalize on that will win the battle for talent, innovation and economic growth.
