To the Honorable Jan Brewer Governor of the State of Arizona

Dear Governor Brewer:

We are pleased to submit to you and the citizens of Arizona the summary report of the Arts Commission for the 2010 fiscal year. This report fulfills the requirements of the act that established the Arizona Commission on the Arts (A.R.S. § 41-981).

Fiscal year 2010 was a challenging year for the nonprofit arts industry in Arizona. As the economy continued to be stagnant, the Arts Commission focused efforts on adapting and refining its resources to keep the Arizona arts industry strong. The Arts Commission increasingly works to find new and innovative ways to support this industry beyond the important funding it provides in every legislative district of the state.

The arts industry in Arizona provides substantial and impactful service to the citizens and visitors of our state. The economic impact of the arts continues to rise, opportunities for cultural tourism grows in both rural and urban communities, and artists and arts organizations continue to assist our schools in providing a comprehensive and well-balanced education for our young people.

- 8,457,543 people in all Arizona counties participated in Arts Commission-sponsored programs in fiscal year 2010.
- More than 1,448,866 students reached by Arts Commission-sponsored activities and programs.
- 299 projects reached Arizona's young people and students (95% of all ACA projects).
- Education projects include artist-in-residence in schools and after-school programs, outreach by arts organizations, and programs by organizations whose primary mission is arts education.
- We continue to develop ways to enhance cultural tourism throughout the state through workshops, partnerships, and direct grants. Our Arts Link to Tourism and the Economy grant program supported 3 events in Arizona communities including one in Sedona and two in Flagstaff.
- We continue to build support for community arts festivals throughout the state. Festivals, such as the Florence Multicultural Festival, Hispanic music festivals and the Arizona Matsuri Festival, among others, demonstrate Arizona's unique heritage and cultures to broad audiences. Festivals are entry point events for new attendees for the arts, they have a significant economic impact in the local community and provide substantial financial rewards in sales for participating artists.

The Arts Commission maintains and updates its agency policy with the guidance of the fifteen-member, Governor-appointed Commission. Through surveys, meetings and listening sessions, the Arts Commission regularly solicits feedback and input from community members, including arts educators, community leaders, artists, arts professionals and business leaders. This feedback shapes and guides the Arts Commission's planning and review process. I am very pleased with the ability of the Arts Commission to adapt its services to best serve the needs of this constituency.

It is our pleasure to serve the state of Arizona, and to support the efforts of the Arts Commission to ensure that all Arizonans can participate in and experience the arts wherever they live.

Yours Respectfully,

Darryl Dobras
Arts Commission Chair

Agency Overview

OUR MISSION: We imagine an Arizona where everyone can participate in and experience the arts.

AGENCY OVERVIEW

One of 56 state and jurisdictional arts agencies, the Arizona Commission on the Arts supports a statewide arts network. The agency is governed by a 15-member Governor-appointed Commission and a professional staff grounded in the arts, including practicing artists, skilled administrators and education specialists who serve in local and national arts leadership roles.

The Arts Commission's leadership reaches into all areas of the state, supporting programs that contribute to student learning, connect people in rural communities and urban centers, that preserve the rich traditions of Arizona's diverse communities, encourage participation by people with disabilities and by citizens of all ages and strengthen artistic and administrative skills of arts organizations to help position them to better serve the people of Arizona.

Through the Arizona Commission on the Arts, the state makes a strategic investment of public dollars to assure Arizona's competitive edge in attracting knowledge workers and their businesses. The diversity of Arizona's artistic offerings becomes a magnet for attracting tourists. This public investment encourages contributions from the private sector and leverages these dollars many times over, contributing enormously to the quality of life and education opportunities the people of Arizona expect.

A LONG-TERM VISION FOR A SUSTAINABLE ARTS INDUSTRY

Arizonans have indicated that a successful statewide arts and culture industry features the following attributes:

1. Arizonans have access to vibrant, quality arts and cultural activities regardless of where they live – and have opportunities to participate in the arts as practitioners, professionals, patrons, donors and volunteers.
2. Residents have opportunities to make healthy livable wages working in myriad facets of the arts in Arizona communities. Their contributions are valued and respected.
3. Students have access to quality, robust arts education opportunities in Arizona schools. In-school arts opportunities are enhanced by meaningful opportunities in out-of-school and community settings.
4. Arts and cultural programs and organizations are considered societal cornerstones and employed as partners in the revitalization and sustainability of streets, neighborhoods and communities.
5. In recognition of the arts industry's role in economic viability, profitability and enhanced quality of life, Arizona's for-profit businesses invest in the arts as partners, supporters and champions.

The Arts Commission considers these five points to be a long-term vision for a sustainable arts industry.

STRATEGIC PLAN

Development of the Arizona Commission on the Arts' strategic plan took place in Fiscal Year 2010 and during the first half of Fiscal Year 2011. Titled Building an Artistic Future for Arizona, the plan spans four years (FY2011– FY2014) and was ratified by the Arts Commission's Governor-appointed board on September 16, 2010 for implementation October 01, 2010.

The plan represents a cohesive set of strategies to advance a collective cause: stability and progress for the Arizona arts industry. Within the plan, "Desired Outcomes" are developed as ideal results for the entire Arizona arts industry, and "Arts Commission Goals" are developed as planned objectives for the Arts Commission itself. The Arts Commission's Strategic Plan can be found here.

HISTORY OF THE ARTS COMMISSION

When Congress created the National Endowment for the Arts in 1965, they also gave funding to all state governments to form state arts commissions and asked them to conduct surveys of each state's existing facilities, organizations and individuals engaged in the arts. Governor Samuel P. Goddard established the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a state council by executive order on January 24, 1966. The 28th Arizona Legislature passed S.B. 139, establishing the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a permanent state agency, and Governor Jack Williams signed the bill on March 13, 1967.

The Arts Commission became the official agency of the State of Arizona "to stimulate and encourage public interest in the cultural resources, through the study and presentation of the performing arts and fine arts, to ensure that their role in the life of our communities will continue to grow and will play an even more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens." In 1982, Governor Bruce Babbitt signed enabling legislation continuing the agency to 1992, and changing its name to the Arizona Commission on the Arts. Again in 1992, the Legislature and Governor Fife Symington reinstated the agency until 2002. In 2001, the Auditor General's office conducted a nine-month-long Sunset Audit. The following year, the Legislature reauthorized the agency until 2012.

GOVERNING COMMISSION

The Commission consists of a governing board of fifteen members, including one chairperson and one vice chairperson, appointed by the Governor of Arizona. Commission members serve terms of three years and are chosen for their demonstrated ability, good judgment and experience in arts-related fields. In addition, they are selected to ensure the geographic and ethnic representation of all areas of the state. Commission members attend quarterly Commission meetings, serve as chairs for selection panels, award grants and formulate policy consistent with the enabling legislation.

All grants and awards from the Arts Commission are made in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, American Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

Program Areas

WHAT DOES THE ARTS COMMISSION DO?

Respected as a leader in the national and Arizona arts community, the Arizona Commission on the arts continues to be an exemplary agency providing needed services to a statewide arts industry in a manner that is transparent and accountable to the citizens of Arizona.

The Arizona Commission on the Arts is an agency of the State of Arizona whose mission is to create opportunities for all Arizonans to participate in and experience the arts. To that end, we deliver grants and support to cultivate sustainable arts communities and promote statewide public access to arts and cultural activities.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

The Arts Commission offers staff and consultant resources with expertise in arts disciplines and community development, and provides referrals and information to help artists and arts organizations connect most effectively with their communities. Areas of expertise include organization development, community participation building, grants preparation, marketing, fundraising and board development.

The Arts Commission also has an extensive website at which constituents can access information from anywhere in the state at any time. www.azarts.gov

RESEARCH

The Arts Commission maintains a wide array of data and materials in arts, arts education and related areas. The Arts Commission provides these resources to constituents through the website and publications or to research at other service organizations and public agencies. The Arts Commission also tracks research and statistics on a broad range of areas from cultural tourism to economic impact studies of the arts to the influence of arts education on student learning.

PROFESSIONAL/STAFF ASSISTANCE

Arts Commission program staff has expertise and experience in arts administration, arts disciplines and as facilitators. Constituents are encouraged to speak with staff about potential projects; discuss organizational or career development issues; ways in which they would like to connect to others in their communities or artforms; or to facilitate staff and board discussions.

The Arts Commission's Consultant Services Roster offers consultants with experience in board development, marketing, fundraising, cultural tourism, community cultural inventories, arts participation research projects, accessibility and other specialized areas. The Arts Commission makes the Consultant Services Roster available to arts organizations. Consultancies leave organizations with strategies and tools to move forward on their own.

CONVENING

The Arts Commission is a catalyst and facilitator in bringing together the Arizona arts industry.

Each year the Arts Commission sponsors the annual Southwest Arts Conference (SWAC) to provide professional development opportunities to more than 450 arts workers, artists, and arts educators from around the state. Additionally the staff convenes workshops throughout the state each year. By bringing together groups of people, the staff learns of issues in specific disciplines, or in programs areas such as arts education, presenting and young leadership development.

Arts Commission staff serves on panels, provides technical assistance, and presents at convenings around the state such as the Governor's Conference on Tourism, Arizona Department of Education, the Department of Commerce's Rural Economic Development Conference, Arizona Department of Transportation T-21 Committee and more. The Arts Commission works with Main Street programs to discuss how design and programmatic issues in the arts affect the economic viability of rural areas.

The agency represents the arts in policy discussions including economic development, cultural tourism, education, community development, public art and transportation design.

TECHNOLOGY

The Arts Commission recently completed the redesign of its website to be in compliance with GITA policy, but is also taking advantage of the migration to a new template to redesign how the agency communicates its values, goals, programs and services. The redesigned website is much more intuitive than the previous site, and provides a wealth of resources and information in support of the Arizona arts industry.

ARIZONA ARTS EDUCATION CENSUS

The Arizona Arts Education Research Institute supports research in arts education in partnership among the Arts Commission, the Arizona Department of Education and the fine arts colleges of the three universities. This last year, the Arizona Commission on the Arts, in partnership with Arizona's three state university Colleges of Art and the Arizona Department of Education, completed a statewide survey of Arizona schools. By asking principals for detailed information about all arts education programs at their schools, this survey for the first time generated a clear picture of what is actually being taught in the arts, and by whom, in Arizona's preK-12 schools. The resulting survey publication and complete findings can be found at <http://www.azarts.gov/arts-learning/arizona-arts-education-research-institute/>.

Funding

ORGANIZATIONS

The Arts Commission offers General Operating Support grants to not-for-profit arts organizations to provide stability and infrastructure. This support allows organizations of all sizes to develop and present high-quality and effective programs for the public. This support is also available for local arts agencies and tribal museums.

Arts Learning Project grants connect practicing artists in all disciplines with schools, after-school programs, libraries, museums and other community settings. These programs reinforce the value of the arts as an essential part of basic education, support the implementation of the Arizona Arts Standards and provide students and teachers opportunities to explore the arts and participate in hands-on creative experiences with artists.

Arts Link to Tourism and the Economy grants support projects that capitalize on a community's artistic resources through economic development and cultural tourism strategies.

Festival Project Grants assist organizations in providing quality arts programming to communities.

INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS

Artist Project Grants encourage artists to pursue research and development and to extend the mastery of their art forms. The Arts Commission sees individual artists as small business entrepreneurs in communities large and small. Modest support in both financial and technical areas help these small businesses grow and provide resources to their communities and grow our economy.

The Arts Commission launched the updated Teaching Artist Roster, which uses the latest in Web 2.0 technology in 2008. This roster compiles a listing of juried artists in many disciplines who are interested and available to work in schools and communities.

Artists can also apply for Professional Development awards to attend conferences and learning opportunities in order to further their professional artistic and management development.

To connect people with disabilities with the arts, the Arts Commission is part of a consortium of 40 organizations called ARTability. Annually, the Arts Commission engages with its organizational grantees to ensure that each one was in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and has current access plans on file.

In-depth information on all these topics can be found on the website at www.azarts.gov.

Financial Assistance

AWARDED BY THE ARTS COMMISSION (ALPHABETICAL BY COUNTY AND CITY)

This section details each individual grant made to organizations and individuals in FY09-10. Organized alphabetically by county, and then by municipality within the county, this lists each grantee and the title of the project or grant type, and the sources of funds for the grant.

HOW WERE THESE GRANTS SELECTED?

All grants are awarded through a process in which the organization or individual applies for support. Eligible applications are evaluated through a panel review process. These panels comprise artists, arts administrators, educators and expert laypeople from the diverse geographic, artistic and cultural/ethnic communities of Arizona. Arts Commission staff does not participate as review panelists. Panels review applications in their category, giving of their time and expertise, and provide recommendations for funding to the Arts Commission. Governor-appointed Commissioners ratify the recommendations of the panelists. Applicants must then document and certify the use of the funds before payment is made, and must provide appropriate documentation in a final report on the project after completion.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY COME FROM?

Federal funds are provided through Congressional appropriations to the National Endowment for the Arts; Arizona receives funds through a Partnership Agreement (a portion is calculated by formula and a portion through a competitive review process) and Challenge America (designed to support programs in underserved areas).

State funds are appropriated by the Arizona State Legislature. ATF denotes the Arts Trust Fund; these grants are specifically designated from a portion of the annual filing of businesses with the Corporation Commission, interest income from the state portion of Arizona ArtShare, the state's arts endowment housed in the State Treasury and private funds at the Arizona Community Foundation. Other funds come from interest generated by Arizona ArtShare, a private endowment fund; the Bill Desmond Writers' Fund; and a partnership with the Arizona Community Foundation.

Financial Reports FY2010

Vases by Jeremy Briddell, Tempe

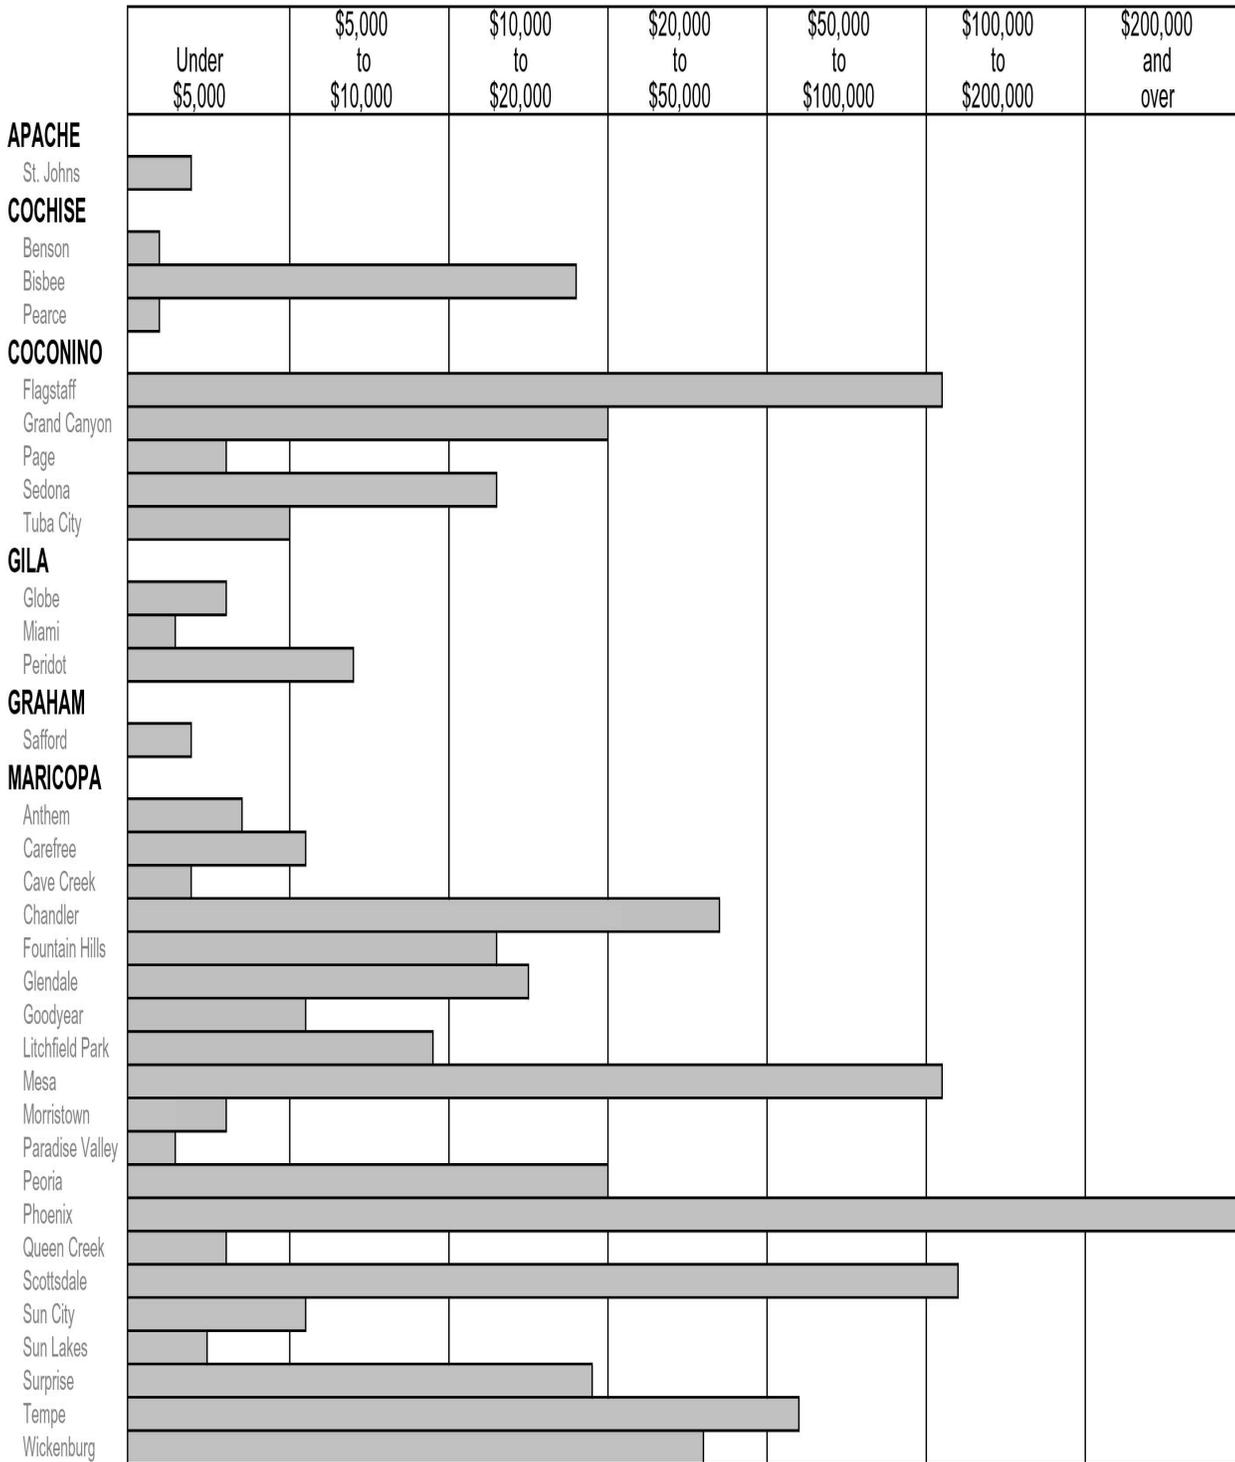

Funds are received from four sources:

- General Fund, appropriated annually by the State Legislature for Community Service Projects and agency administration.
- Arts Fund, a combination of federal funds and other local funds.
- Arts Trust Fund, a portion of the annual filing fee for for-profit corporations, collected by the Arizona Corporation Commission for grants toward general operating support of non-profit arts organizations.
- Arts Endowment, interest earned on state contributions to the state arts endowment fund, and on private contributions to Arizona ArtShare funds at the Arizona Community Foundation and Community Foundation for Southern Arizona. (Note: The remaining balance of the public fund was swept in FY2011.)

Innovative people and companies look for creative communities with diverse cultural amenities. The communities that capitalize on that will win the battle for talent, innovation and economic growth.
