The Arizona Commission on the Arts Announces $1,208,717 in Grant Investments across the State of Arizona

Phoenix (July 14, 2015): On July 1, 2015, the Arizona Commission on the Arts, an agency of the State of Arizona, announced 222 grants to Arizona nonprofit arts organizations, local arts agencies, schools and community organizations in the categories of Community Investment, Arts Learning and Festival Grants. In total, $1,208,717 was invested through the competitive grant review process for fiscal year 2016 (July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016).

“Governor Ducey has spoken of Arizona’s creative sector as a critical part of building the state’s future, pointing to the sector’s tremendous capacity to enrich communities, promote civic pride and contribute to the economic health and competitiveness that make Arizona great,” said Mark Feldman, CEO of Miller Russell Associates in Phoenix and the Arts Commission’s Governor-appointed Chairman. “These grants represent a sound investment in Arizona’s continued growth and vitality.”

Grants were awarded in three categories:

Community Investment Grants provide operating support to nonprofit arts organizations, local arts agencies and tribal cultural organizations whose mission is to produce, present, teach or serve the arts.

Arts Learning Grants provide funding for quality projects which support lifelong learning in, through and/or about the arts.

Festival Grants support organizations in their efforts to provide quality arts and cultural programming through community festival activities.

See a full list of grantees organized by Grant Type or by County below.

In accordance with the Arts Commission’s strategic plan and governing statutes, schools and nonprofit arts organizations are awarded grants based on such factors as community investment, quality of programming, fiscal ingenuity and responsible stewardship of public funds.

Grant applications are reviewed within rigorous panel processes which are open to applicants as well as the broader public. Review panels are led by Governor-appointed Commissioners and are composed of diverse volunteer experts, arts practitioners and community leaders from rural, urban and suburban areas throughout Arizona.

Grant funding is provided by the State of Arizona and funding awarded annually to the Arts Commission by the National Endowment for the Arts.

“From Yuma to Teec Nos Pos, from Kingman to Bisbee, the Arts Commission utilizes its grant programs to provide essential investment in communities across Arizona,” said Robert Booker, Executive Director of the Arizona Commission on the Arts. “As part of this grantmaking effort, the State of Arizona is an indispensable partner to Arizona’s arts sector in pursuit of a shared mission: to imagine an Arizona where everyone can participate in and experience the arts.”

About the Arizona Commission on the Arts

One of 56 state and jurisdictional arts agencies across the United States, the Arizona Commission on the Arts is an agency of the State of Arizona that supports a statewide arts network. The Arizona Commission on the Arts supports access to quality arts and arts education opportunities for all Arizona citizens; the development and retention of statewide jobs in the nonprofit arts, culture and education sectors; and increased economic impact in local communities through arts-based partnerships that develop tax and small business revenue.
