TO THE HONORABLE DOUG DUCEY GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

Dear Governor Ducey:

I am pleased to submit to you and the citizens of Arizona the summary report of the Arizona Commission on the Arts for Fiscal Year 2017. This report fulfills the requirements of the act that established the agency (A.R.S. § 41-984).

Though under-capitalized, Arizona's nonprofit arts sector continues to grow in strength, diversity, and influence. With the ingenuity, determination, and self-reliance that has long distinguished the people of Arizona, these bold artists and arts leaders continue to venture into new markets and explore new avenues to connect with and serve their communities. In accordance with its mission to imagine an Arizona where everyone can participate in and experience the arts, the Arizona Commission on the Arts endeavored throughout the year to catalyze such activity, helping the sector to harness its boundless energy and creative imagination in service of Arizona's residents.

Additionally, the agency continues to lead by example, providing a model of innovation, market responsiveness, and cross-sector collaboration. Two programs in particular exemplify this:

A $225,000 grant from Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust funds AZ Creative Aging, a comprehensive three-year initiative that provides training to teaching artists, supports the development of high-quality arts programs for older adults, and embeds creative aging knowledge and best practices in the community. In Fiscal Year 2017, the Arts Commission launched the second phase of this work: Generation(s) Lab is an incubator program for arts organizations with a committed interest in better serving Arizona's older adults by strengthening existing programs and/or developing new initiatives. 11 organizations were selected to participate, including Heard Museum, Ballet Arizona, and ASU Gammage.

With a second year of funding from the Emily Hall Tremaine Foundation, the Arts Commission administered a second year of the highly successful AZ ArtWorker initiative, an artist-to-artist professional development program which facilitates dialogue and knowledge-sharing between Arizona artists, their national and international artist peers, and residents of Arizona communities. Fiscal Year 2017 activities included opportunities for Arizona residents to work alongside world renowned artists and even a MacArthur Genius!

AZ Creative Aging and AZ ArtWorker maximize two of the arts sector's distinctive talents: to power the development of imaginative solutions to community challenges and to leverage creative partnerships for mutually-beneficial outcomes.

In Fiscal Year 2018, the governing board and staff of the Arizona Commission are building upon the successes of 2017, fostering the continued growth and stabilization of the sector, contributing to the vitality and potential of Arizona's communities, and expanding access to quality arts experiences throughout the state.

Yours Respectfully,

HISTORY OF THE ARTS COMMISSION

When Congress created the National Endowment for the Arts in 1965, they also gave funding to all state governments to form state arts commissions and asked them to conduct surveys of each state's existing facilities, organizations and individuals engaged in the arts. Governor Samuel P. Goddard established the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a state council by executive order on January 24, 1966. The 28th Arizona Legislature passed S.B. 139, establishing the Arizona Commission on the Arts and Humanities as a permanent state agency, and Governor Jack Williams signed the bill on March 13, 1967.

The Arts Commission became the official agency of the State of Arizona "to stimulate and encourage public interest in the cultural resources, through the study and presentation of the performing arts and fine arts, to ensure that their role in the life of our communities will continue to grow and will play an even more significant part in the welfare and educational experience of our citizens." In 1982, Governor Bruce Babbitt signed enabling legislation continuing the agency to 1992, and changing its name to the Arizona Commission on the Arts. Again in 1992, the Legislature and Governor Fife Symington reinstated the agency until 2002. In 2001, the Auditor General's office conducted a nine-month-long Sunset Audit. The following year, the Legislature reauthorized the agency until 2012. On Tuesday, April 17, 2012, Governor Jan Brewer signed HB2265 into law, reauthorizing the Arizona Commission on the Arts for another 10 years.

GOVERNING COMMISSION

The Commission consists of a governing board of fifteen members, including one chairperson and one vice chairperson, appointed by the Governor of Arizona. Commission members serve terms of three years and are chosen for their demonstrated ability, good judgment and experience in arts-related fields. In addition, they are selected to ensure the geographic and ethnic representation of all areas of the state. Commission members attend quarterly Commission meetings, serve as chairs for selection panels, award grants, and formulate policy consistent with the enabling legislation.

AGENCY OVERVIEW

One of 56 state and jurisdictional arts agencies, the Arizona Commission on the Arts supports a statewide arts network. The agency is governed by a 15-member Governor-appointed Commission and a professional staff grounded in the arts, including practicing artists, skilled administrators and education specialists who serve in local and national arts leadership roles.

The Arts Commission's leadership reaches into all areas of the state, supporting programs that contribute to student learning, connect people in rural communities and urban centers, preserve the rich traditions of Arizona's diverse communities, encourage participation by people with disabilities and by citizens of all ages and strengthen artistic and administrative skills of arts organizations to help position them to better serve the people of Arizona.

Through the Arizona Commission on the Arts, the state makes a strategic investment of public dollars to ensure Arizona's competitive edge in attracting knowledge workers and their businesses. The diversity of Arizona's artistic offerings becomes a magnet for attracting tourists. This public investment encourages contributions from the private sector and leverages these dollars many times over, contributing enormously to the quality of life and education opportunities the people of Arizona expect.

STRATEGIC PLAN

Development of the Arizona Commission on the Arts' strategic plan took place in Fiscal Year 2011 and during the first half of Fiscal Year 2012. Titled "Building an Artistic Future for Arizona," the plan spans six years (FY2011– FY2016) and was ratified by the Arts Commission's Governor-appointed board on September 16, 2010 for implementation October 01, 2010.

The plan represents a cohesive set of strategies to advance a collective cause: stability and progress for the Arizona arts industry. Within the plan, "Desired Outcomes" are developed as ideal results for the entire Arizona arts industry, and "Arts Commission Goals" are developed as planned objectives for the Arts Commission itself.

The Arts Commission's Strategic Plan can be found at www.azarts.gov/about-us/what-we-do.

LONG-TERM VISION

Arizonans have indicated that a successful statewide arts industry features the following attributes:

Arizonans have access to vibrant, quality arts and cultural activities regardless of where they live and have opportunities to participate in the arts as practitioners, professionals, patrons, donors and volunteers.

Residents have opportunities to make healthy livable wages working in myriad facets of the arts in Arizona communities.

Their contributions are valued and respected.

Students have access to quality, robust arts education opportunities in Arizona schools. In-school arts opportunities are enhanced by meaningful opportunities in out-of-school and community settings.

Arts and cultural programs and organizations are considered societal cornerstones and employed as partners in the revitalization and sustainability of streets, neighborhoods and communities.

In recognition of the arts industry's role in economic viability, profitability and enhanced quality of life, Arizona's for-profit businesses invest in the arts as partners, supporters and champions.

The Arts Commission considers these five points to be a long-term vision for a sustainable arts industry.

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

The Arts Commission acts as a knowledge base for the state's artists, arts organizations and educators. As a central hub for Arizona's arts and culture community, the Arts Commission is well-positioned to relay information, make referrals and otherwise facilitate sector-wide communication and the establishment of new partnerships.

The Arts Commission maintains an extensive and frequently updated website (www.azarts.gov) where constituents can access a wealth of pertinent and valuable information from anywhere in the state at any time.

PROFESSIONAL/STAFF ASSISTANCE

Staffed with experts in organizational structure and development, community building through the arts, arts education, arts funding models and various arts disciplines, the Arts Commission acts as a knowledge base for the state's artists, arts organizations and educators. Constituents are encouraged to speak with staff about potential projects, discuss organizational or career development issues, ways in which they would like to connect to others in their communities or art forms, or to facilitate staff and board discussions.

Though small in number and tasked with serving the entire state of Arizona, the Arts Commission's program staff remains committed to providing highly personalized, direct service to its constituents. Arts Commission staff members are readily accessible via phone and email, providing prompt and courteous response to all constituent correspondence.

RESEARCH

The Arts Commission maintains a wide array of research data and analysis on the arts, arts education and arts funding trends. The Arts Commission provides these resources to constituents through azarts.gov and print publications, as well as to other service organizations and public agencies. The Arts Commission also tracks research and statistics on a broad range of areas, from cultural tourism to economic impact studies of the arts to the influence of arts education on student learning.

CONVENING

In its role as a convener, the Arizona Commission on the Arts creates opportunities for the state's artists, arts administrators, educators and arts supporters to gather, network, learn from each other and share resources. Fiscal Year 2017 convenings included the following:

- Grantwriting workshops were presented throughout the state and online.
- The Arts Commission hosted a series of workshops presented by DataArts (formerly Cultural Data Project) in Flagstaff, Mesa, Phoenix and Tucson. Attendees recieved training on the use of data and storytelling to describe the impact of their programs to funders and authorizers.
- Partering with ArtAbilityAZ (formerly VSA AZ), the Arts Commission offered workshops on ADA compliance for nonprofit arts organizations.
- Coordinated with the second year of the agency's AZ Creative Aging intitiative, the Arts Commission parternerd with Minnesota's TimeSlips to bring their Create/Change conference to Phoenix. Alongside TimeSlips founder and MacArthur Genius Anne Basting, the Arts Commission provided 3-days of intensive training to an international cohort of over 100 practitioners, educators, and health care professionals
- Presented by the Arizona Commission on the Arts, the Arizona Department of Education, and City of Phoenix Office of Arts and Culture, the Joint Arts Education Conference (JAEC) drew over 150 teaching artists, educators, arts administrators and arts education advocates from all across the state.

Arts Commission staff members also serve on panels, provide technical assistance, and present at convenings around the state such as the Governor's Conference on Tourism, Arizona Department of Education, the Arizona-Mexico Commission and more.

Finally, the agency regularly represents the arts in policy discussions including economic development, cultural tourism, education, community development, public art and transportation design.

A7 CREATIVE AGING

U.S. Census Bureau data estimates that by the year 2020, more than 1 in 4 Arizonans will be over age 60.

At any stage of life, our sense of well-being is affected by our ability to live with purpose and joy, to deal effectively with life's changes and challenges, and to sustain positive, meaningful, dynamic relationships, but this becomes particularly acute as we age.

Creative Aging is a national movement to advance understanding of the vital relationship between creative expression and healthy aging, and a term used to encompass the many types of quality arts programs which support and enrich the lives of adults across the aging spectrum.

Decades of research have found that older adults are healthier and happier when participating in creative aging programs. Among the findings: fewer doctor visits and less medication use for study participants engaged in professionally-conducted arts activities; improved cognitive measures; and self-reported higher morale and less social isolation.

AZ Creative Aging is an ambitious and comprehensive initiative of the Arizona Commission on the Arts that will build a creative aging infrastructure to enhance quality of life for older Arizonans. AZ Creative Aging will provide training to teaching artists, arts organization and aging/healthcare service providers, support the development of high-quality arts programs for older adults and embed creative aging knowledge and best practices in the community.

AZ Creative Aging is funded by a grant from Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust.

AZ ARTWORKER

Recognizing the need for high-quality, accessible and culturally-relevant professional development for artists, the Arizona Commission on the Arts created AZ ArtWorker, an artist-to-artist professional development program which facilitates dialogue and knowledge-sharing between Arizona artists, their national and international artist peers, and residents of Arizona communities.

Through an innovative partnership with Arizona State University and the generous support of the Emily Hall Tremaine Foundation, the Arts Commission offers AZ ArtWorker programs in Douglas, Phoenix, Sells, and Tucson. AZ ArtWorker provides an expansive learning platform, which includes:

- Practical Training: Taught by international and Arizona artists and arts experts, sessions will focus on discipline-specific techniques, sociallyengaged methodologies and creative practices.
- Experiential Activities: Artists will participate in site/studio visits, performances and artmaking.
- Public Conversations: Artists will explore big ideas in art and community practice, connecting local and global approaches. Conversations will be open to the public and marketed to artists, arts/culture workers, educators and community leaders.
- Entrepreneurial Training: Artists will participate in workshops taught by the PAVE Program in Arts Entrepreneurship and will receive digital tools supporting the business side of creative practice.

At their most targeted, AZ ArtWorker offerings provide opportunities for artists to participate in meaningful learning experiences in the communities where they live and work, featuring topical workshops, individual/group consultations and networking opportunities to build strategic partnerships.

At its most expansive, AZ ArtWorker generates community-focused programs, connecting communities and their artists in new and exciting ways.

POETRY OUT LOUD

Poetry Out Loud seeks to foster the next generation of literary readers by capitalizing on the latest trends in poetry-recitation and performance. The program builds on the resurgence of poetry as an oral art form, as seen in the slam poetry movement and the immense popularity of rap music among youth. Poetry Out Loud invites the dynamic aspects of slam poetry, spoken word and theater into the English class. Through Poetry Out Loud, students can master public speaking skills, build self-confidence and learn about their literary heritage.

The National Endowment for the Arts and the Poetry Foundation partner with State Arts Agencies to bring the Poetry Out Loud (POL) program to all 56 states and US territories. In Arizona, Poetry Out Loud is administered by the Arizona Commission on the Arts in collaboration with University of Arizona Poetry Center and Phonetic Spit.

Each year over 10,000 Arizona high school students compete in Poetry Out Loud for a chance to represent Arizona at the national finals and a $20,000 college scholarship.

"There's something about being in front of a crowd with a microphone at your lips that gives you this sense of power and a beautiful ability to reach out to others with something so personal to you: your voice."

Zaskia Villa, 2015 Arizona Poetry Out Loud State Champion

GRANTMAKING OBJECTIVES

In response to economic realities and national funding trends in the nonprofit arts and culture sector, the Arts Commission dramatically reimagined its investment in arts organizations and schools in Fiscal Year 2014 to better align with the agency's grantmaking objectives, strategic plan and enabling statutes. In particular, the redesign sought to accomplish the following three objectives

To refocus agency grantmaking such that the primary constituents meant to benefit from the State's investment in the arts and culture sector are the citizens of Arizona, the taxpaying public.

To incentivize best practices and innovative strategies which prioritize fiscal ingenuity and encourage broad community participation and engagement.

To ensure that the state's investment in the arts and culture sector reflects Arizona's diverse population and evolving demographics.

Awarding grants is a primary strategy in the Arts Commission's mission to imagine an Arizona where everyone can participate in and experience the arts. In this effort grant applicants are our partners, providing direct arts experiences throughout Arizona.

Grant funding is provided by the State of Arizona and funding awarded annually to the Arts Commission by the National Endowment for the Arts.

FUNDING NONPROFITS & SCHOOLS

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT GRANTS

Through Community Investment Grants the Arts Commission provides general operating support to nonprofit arts organizations that demonstrate exceptional public value, a strong commitment to community engagement, and proper stewardship of public funds. This support allows organizations of all sizes to develop and present high-quality and efficacious programs for the public. This support is also available for local arts agencies and tribal museums.

FESTIVAL GRANTS

Festival Grants assist organizations in providing quality arts programming to communities.

ARTS LEARNING PROJECT GRANTS

Arts Learning Project Grants connect practicing artists in all disciplines with schools, after-school programs, libraries, museums and other community settings. These programs reinforce the value of the arts as an essential part of basic education, support the implementation of the Arizona Arts Standards and provide students and teachers opportunities to explore the arts and participate in hands-on creative experiences with artists.

FUNDING ARIZONA ARTISTS

INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS

With their creative approaches to investigation, problem solving and social engagement, artists make vital contributions to the civic wellbeing, innovative capacity and cultural life of Arizona's diverse communities. Through grants and programs, the Arizona Commission on the Arts partners with Arizona artists, nurturing their creative and professional development while leveraging their knowledge and talents in service to Arizonans.

ARTIST RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

The highly-competitive Artist Research and Development Grant program promotes the advancement of artistic research, aids in the development of artistic work and recognizes the contributions artists make to Arizona's communities and sense of cultural identity.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

Artists can also apply for Professional Development Grants to attend conferences, participate in residency programs, and pursue learning opportunities that further professional and artistic skills.

FUNDING INNOVATIVE PROGRAMS

SPECIAL INITIATIVES

STRENGTHENING SCHOOLS THROUGH ARTS PARTNERSHIPS

According to a 2010 survey of access to arts education, 20% of Arizona schools offer zero arts courses in any discipline. Follow-up research revealed that for Arizona's lowest-performing schools, that percentage was even higher, at 34%. These findings prompted the Arizona Commission on the Arts to pilot an experimental funding initiative in partnership with the Arizona Department of Education (ADE).

Strengthening Schools Through Arts Partnerships is based on a growing body of evidence demonstrating the benefits of strong arts education and/or arts integration programs, supported by community arts resources, to school improvement and capacity-building efforts.

Strengthening Schools Through Arts Partnerships grants were awarded to four partnerships, each comprising a low-performing "D" label school and a nonprofit arts organization, in support of programs that aimed to strengthen teaching and learning in arts education and/or arts integration.

Implemented over two consecutive school years, the programs were facilitated by local arts organizations and professional teaching artists who consulted with school staff on the needs of their students and how their programs could support each site's curriculum, school climate and culture.

In September 2015, the ADE Program Evaluation unit published a cross-case evaluation of the funded programs based on their final reports, summarizing the three major areas of impact across programs as Academic Achievement, Student Self-Efficacy and Student Engagement.

AWARDED BY THE ARTS COMMISSION

the following pages list each individual grant made to organizations and individuals in Fiscal Year 2017. Organized alphabetically by county and then by municipality within that county, this section lists each grantee, the title of the project or grant type, and the sources of funds for the grant.

HOW WERE THESE GRANTS SELECTED?

All grants and awards from the Arts Commission are made in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, American Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

All grants are awarded through a process that begins with the organization or individual applying for support. Eligible applications are evaluated through a panel review process. These panels include community leaders, local businesspeople, artists, arts administrators and educators from diverse geographic, artistic and cultural/ethnic communities of Arizona. Arts Commission staff members do not participate as review panelists.

Panelists review applications in a given category, generously giving of their time and expertise, and provide recommendations for funding to the Arts Commission. Individual Governor-appointed Commissioners chair the panel meetings and as a body, carefully consider the recommendations of the panelists in order to authorize the final grant awards. Grant recipients document and certify the use of the funds before payment is made and must provide appropriate documentation in a final report on the project or funding-period activities after completion.

Grant review panels include community leaders, local businesspeople, artists, arts administrators and educators from diverse geographic, artistic and cultural/ethnic communities of Arizona.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY COME FROM?

The Arizona Commission on the Arts received and disbursed funds from three sources in Fiscal Year 2017:

Federal funds, provided through Congressional appropriations to the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) and awarded to the Arts Commission as a State Partnership Grant following a competitive national panel review.

The Arizona Arts Trust Fund, derived from a portion of annual business filing fees for for-profit corporations, collected and managed by the Arizona Corporation Commission. Receipts from this fund are used as the required match to the Arts Commission's NEA State Partnership Grant.

The Arts Fund, a state-held local account into which interest from the private ArtShare Endowment (held by the Arizona Community Foundation) is deposited. The Arts Fund also holds designated foundation grants and corporate sponsorships awarded to the Arts Commission, as well as receipts from event registration fees.
