

Lifelong Arts Engagement Grants

To support creative engagement for all ages

Program Description

Lifelong Arts Engagement Grants support partnerships that foster meaningful arts learning experiences in community settings for learners of any age in one of the following three categories:

- An applicant may submit only one application per cycle, and may receive only one Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant per fiscal year.
- Across grant programs, the Arts Commission limits the number of applications that may be submitted by a given organization or unit of government to one (1) application per funding period (July 1 – June 30 of the following year). While an organization or unit of government may be eligible for more than one grant program, they may only apply for one of them in a given funding period. (See FAQ number 5 for more information)
- Individual teaching artists or arts organizations may be listed as partners on a maximum of seven (7) funded Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant applications in a given fiscal year. If the number of applications on which a given individual teaching artist or arts organization is listed as a partner in a single funding cycle exceeds the total number that may be funded for that fiscal year, they will be asked to advise the Arts Commission on which application(s) will be withdrawn from consideration. The Arts Commission requests that prospective applicants consider this restriction before applying.

Frequently Asked Questions

The following section provides answers to a few of the most frequently asked questions regarding Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant applications. This section is not comprehensive. If your questions are not answered here, please contact the appropriate staff contact.

1. How do I access the online application?

The online application is accessed through <http://azarts.gov/grant/lifelong-arts-engagement/>.

2. Can I apply for a Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant in multiple cycles?

Individual organizations/entities may only receive one Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant per fiscal year. For example, if an organization applies in one of the three Cycles for Fiscal Year 2019 and IS funded, they may not apply again in the following Cycle for that Fiscal Year. If the application is NOT funded, it can be resubmitted in a future cycle.

3. Are school-based projects, or partnerships with schools or school districts, eligible for a Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant?

No. Projects partnering with schools or school districts would be eligible for an Arts Learning Collaboration Grant.

4. I'm an arts organization, am I eligible to apply directly and serve as a partner in another project?

Arts organizations are now eligible to apply directly to the Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant program provided they are not applying to any other Arts Commission Grant programs. As outlined above, as a direct applicant an arts organization may only receive one Lifelong Arts Engagement grant per fiscal year. That arts organization may still serve as a partner in a different project, but all applications, including the one submitted directly, count toward the total partner limit of 7 applications per fiscal year.

5. My organization is eligible for multiple Arts Commission grant programs. Can I apply for more than one?

No. The Arts Commission limits the number of applications which may be submitted by an applicant to one (1) within the same funding period. As an example, an applicant which applies to the Community Investment Grant program may not also apply to the Lifelong Arts Engagement Grant program in Fiscal Year 2019.

6. Where can the matching funds come from?

The Arts Commission does not require that matching funds come from any particular source. Matching funds may come from any combination of sources, including the applicant's program budgets, foundations, private donations, earned revenue or other grants (excluding other Arts Commission grants).

7. What can be used as in-kind support?

In-kind support could include staff salaries for time spent on the project, administrative support time, volunteers, supplies provided for the project, etc. Contact Arts Commission staff for questions related to other possible in-kind support.
