POTENTIAL IMPACT TO ARTIST

Does the application describe the potential impact to your personal craft and/or body of work in the narrative proposal details submitted?

POTENTIAL IMPACT TO ARTIST'S COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

Did you clearly outline who is your community of practice? Does the application describe the potential impact to your artistic discipline, audience, field of study, place-based community, or broader community? Community can mean different things to different people in different contexts, and we encourage you to define your community in a way that makes sense for your artistic practice and this proposal.

ARTISTIC STRENGTH

Do the work samples you share reflect your distinct vision and originality? Does your work sample description convey a clear understanding of your craft—the techniques you use and the intention behind them—and commitment to artistic achievement?

STAGE 1: REVIEW PROCESS

All applications submitted by 11:59 pm, October 25, 2019 will be reviewed by a panel of independent arts professionals from communities throughout the state. Applicants whose applications are determined to be most competitive according to evaluation criteria will be invited to submit additional materials and move on to Stage 2 of the application process.

You will be notified whether or not your application will advance to Stage 2 no later than January 10, 2020.

STAGE 2: THE APPLICATIONDUE BY 11:59 PM, FEBRUARY 5, 2020

Applicants who advance to Stage 2 of review will be invited to submit additional information including a process map, an experience list, and an expense list. Panelists will review the application as a whole and convene for a public panel meeting to make final funding recommendations.

PROCESS MAP

Map the course of your creative process for this proposal by identifying 3 to 5 specific steps you will take during the funding period. These can be activities, events, achievements, or anything else you will use to track and anchor your artistic process.

You can provide a list or narrative text or upload a 1-page file (.jpg or .pdf) of a drawing, sketch, or other visual.

EXPERIENCE LIST

Provide 3 to 5 personal, professional, and/or community-based experiences you have engaged in the past 5 years that are relevant to your proposal.

Briefly describe how each experience is relevant to your proposal and has prepared your collaborators for the work you propose to undertake.

EXPENSES LIST

List total eligible expenses (artist stipends, including your own artist stipend, materials, travel costs, equipment, space rental, production costs, documentation, marketing, rehearsal time, etc.) related to your proposal.

Please include expenses even if you are not seeking funding for them and tell us about any additional income in the Budget Narrative section below.

GRANT AMOUNT REQUESTED

Indicate the grant amount you are requesting, between $3,000 and $5,000.

BUDGET NARRATIVE

Describe anything in the expenses list that would benefit from additional explanation. For example, if your expenses exceed $5,000, please tell us how you will fund the rest of your proposed activities.

STAGE 2: EVALUATION CRITERIA

As you develop your application materials for Stage 2, consider that the panelists will be thinking about Stage 1 Application Materials and Evaluation Criteria in addition to the following:

FEASIBILITY

Does the application demonstrate substantial evidence that the proposal will be realized within the funding period? Does the application include a reasonable expenses list for the scope and scale of your proposed activities? Do the process map and experience list provide evidence of your ability and capacity to realize your proposal? Are the experiences you describe relevant to the work you propose? Does the process map present a clear path to your goals?

INTEGRITY OF PROPOSAL

Viewed as a whole, does your application demonstrate the integrity with which you approach your artistic practice and the community of practice you defined? Do the application materials demonstrate a consistency of proposed actions, values, methods, and goals?

STAGE 2: REVIEW PROCESS

After the February 5 due date, your Stage 1 and Stage 2 application materials will be evaluated by each member of the review panel individually, according to the evaluation criteria.

On March 20, 2020, the panelists will convene in Phoenix to discuss the applications as a group. This meeting is open to the public and applicants being reviewed will be notified of listening options.

At the conclusion of the meeting, panelists will finalize their scores and recommend up to 30 applications for funding. These recommendations will then be sent to the Arts Commission's Governor-appointed board of commissioners for approval.

Grantees will be notified in April 2020.

INVESTING IN ARIZONA'S INNOVATORS AND CREATIVE CONTRIBUTORS

In 2018, the Arizona Commission on the Arts and the Arizona Community Foundation (ACF) embarked upon a public-philanthropic partnership supported in part by funding from the Newton and Betty Rosenzweig Fund for the Arts, an endowment held at ACF. The collaboration aims to increase strategic investments in artists, supporting the work they do as innovators and creative contributors to Arizona's future.

Assessing Arizona's arts-funding landscape, ACF and the Arts Commission determined that there was a clear shortage of support for individual artists compared to other regions. Thanks to ACF's investment, the Arts Commission will double the number of artist grants awarded annually, with ACF matching state funding, dollar-for-dollar.

Both partners believe that Arizona is home to many artists who lead with creativity, resourcefulness, and ingenuity, and that supporting their work can enhance our state's creative capacity for years to come. View the comprehensive partnership announcement at <https://azarts.gov/acf-partnership>.
